

SAIL 2020

Bee Lee Tullos

For the last twenty-seven years, I have taught kindergarten to fifth grade art at a K-12 college prep private school in Montgomery, AL.

I love to create using all of the arts especially drawing, printmaking, and watercolor. My new favorite medium to explore is gel printing. The resulting prints are always a surprise.

In the summer, I travel to study new cultures. With the help of Fulbright and Fund for Teachers, I have been able to visit India, China, Japan, Korea, Thailand, Vietnam, Turkey, and Cambodia. This information is shared with my students the following school year in a school-wide culture study.

This program is made possible by a grant from
