In 2017 Calliope graduated summa cum laude from the University of Montevallo with a degree in Vocal Performance.

Since 2015 she has lead music workshops throughout the South East, using her quirky original music as a vehicle to reassure students that there is no right or wrong way to create! Her goal is to give students the confidence to be themselves, the tools to express what they are feeling and the patience to convey challenging emotions to others in a creative way.

In the Fall of 2019, Calliope completed a month long artist in residency in conjunction with the Alabama State council on the Arts', "Collaborating Artist Program." She worked in Jackson County schools teaching a fourth graders how to write songs from the perspective of historical figures; and second graders, the art of rhythm in poetry.

*If you can speak you can sing,
and if singing brings you joy
You should SING DAILY!*

*EVERYONE has the power to create.
EVERYONE has a voice that deserves to be heard.*

This program is made possible by a grant from
