

Cristin Dillard, MLIS

Cristin M. Dillard is currently serving as the Education Administrator for College and Career Success in the Instructional Services section at the Alabama State Department of Education. Cristin leads the statewide implementation of Alabama's Multi-Tier System of Supports (AL-MTSS) framework to ensure improved educational outcomes for all Alabama students and increased academic achievement, proficiency, and overall student success.

Mrs. Dillard has served in the field of education since 2007 in a variety of roles that include secondary social science teacher, library media specialist, instructional technology coach, and statewide Education Specialist for Library Media.

Mrs. Dillard holds advanced degrees from Troy University and the University of Alabama.

---

The Alabama Arts Summit is a partnership between the Alabama Arts Alliance and the Alabama State Department of Education. The Alabama Arts Alliance is funded in part by grants from the Alabama State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

