

Valerie Jones

Originally from Pennsylvania, Mrs. Valerie Jones calls North Alabama home. She has been teaching secondary visual arts in the Guntersville City School system for twenty-three years.

She holds a Bachelor of Science Art Education, Elementary Education Generalist Certification, Masters Degree in Elementary Education, and is a National Board Certified Teacher, Early Adolescent Young Adulthood Art. She has been a member of the Alabama Arts Literacy Consortium, has contributed and served on numerous Alabama State Department of Education committees, Department Chair for GHS Arts Education and is currently serving on the Guntersville High School Leadership team.

She is passionate about all disciplines of the arts. She is dedicated to her students and craft believing that the arts educate the whole child, enrich and give meaning to their lives, create relevance, and prepare them for 21st Century skills. Her students have won many scholarships and awards at the state, national, and international level. She considers it a privilege to work in a community of enthusiastic people dedicated to children and arts education.

The Alabama Arts Summit is a partnership between the Alabama State Council on the Arts, the Alabama State Department of Education, and the Alabama Arts Alliance
