

Alabama Arts Alliance

SAIL 2020

Multi-Disciplinary Art Making Agenda

Explore Alabama geology, geography, rivers, flora, & fauna through music, dance, poetry, bookmaking, printing, paper engineering, painting, and more!

Day One

Session I: Leaf Prints: Gel plate printing with acrylics with BeeLee Tullos

Session II: Mosaic Metaphor: Alabama geologic & geographic formations & creating mini pebble mosaics with Enid Probst

Dance Session I: Exploring Spatial Elements with Diana Green and Calliope Pettis

Day Two

Session III: Mapping the Meander: Mapping the flow of Alabama rivers with Tara Sartorius

Session IV: Alabama Rivers, Flora & Fauna: Making a cross book using paper engineering techniques with Donna Pickens

Dance Session II: Exploring the Use of Time with Diana Green and Calliope Pettis

Day Three

Session V: Drawing with Dirt: Using Alabama soils to create art with Tara Sartorius

Session VI: Botanical Watercolor: Learning to draw & paint plants with Laura Bocquin

Dance Session III: Exploring Variations in Energy with Diana Green and Calliope Pettis

Day Four

Session VII: Red Bellied Turtle: Drawing and painting endangered species with Ricky Trione

Dance Session VIII: Water Dance: Combining the elements of dance to create quality with Diana Green

Day Five

Session IX: Poetry as Source Material for Dance & Music: A collaborative conversation with Diana Green and Calliope Pettis

DANCE each day with Diana Green and Calliope Pettis
DID YOU KNOW? Dance encourages creativity, improves brain function, improves memory and more. Read On!

