

Bryant Whelan

Bryant Galloway Whelan is Executive Director of the Eastern Shore Art Center in Fairhope, Alabama. Prior to joining the Art Center in 2017, Whelan served as Executive Director of the Mary C. O’Keefe Cultural Center of Arts & Education in Ocean Springs, Mississippi.

A native of Mobile, Alabama, Whelan earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Visual Communications from Auburn University. Her professional career spans over 25 years working in advertising and corporate marketing in Atlanta, Nashville, and Edinburgh, Scotland. A lifelong artist, Whelan’s award-winning artwork continues to be featured in numerous exhibitions, galleries and private collections. In her spare time Whelan enjoys nature walks, collecting old books, and sailing on Mobile Bay.

The Alabama Arts Summit is a partnership between the Alabama Arts Alliance and the Alabama State Department of Education. The Alabama Arts Alliance is funded in part by grants from the Alabama State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.
